Jap Students in Riots Against U. S. Atom Test

TOKYO (UP)—Japanese police formed lines three deep in front of the U. S. embassy in Tokyo today and fought off 100 enraged Japanese university students protesting the Nevada atomic tests.

The students converged on the embassy gate in a solid body in an attempt to crack police lines and enter the compound. The Japanese police ordered a charge and drove the students more than 100 yards down a hill.

The students held a rally and promised another demonstration in a few days.

Shortly before the rainstorm student reinforcements arrived in a bus owned by the Association of Metropolitan Teachers. At the same time Japanese police opened the embassy gates and nine embassy cars shot into the street loaded with embassy employees.

The students did not attack. An embassy official talked with some of the students but would not comment. He appeared after police had fought off the early group of 100 students.

The students attempted to shove their way into the embassy compound and were stopped by police. Embassy officials ordered the huge iron gates to the compound padlocked.

The students joined in singing rousing and defiant labor songs and chanted we want MacArthur. U. S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur left the embassy shortly after the students arrived.

Cites Value of Nuclear Submarine

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nuclear-powered aircraft carrier would be the "toughest target on the face of the earth," Adm. Arleigh A. Burke says.

The chief of naval operations defended the Navy's budget requests yesterday in testimony which also raised the possibility Russia has built an atomic submarine.

A Senate Appropriations subcommittee turned today from the Navy to the Marine Corps and summoned its commandant, Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, for budget discussions.

Burke said current intelligence estimates do not credit Russia with atomic submarines, but added under questioning that they either have or should have them in a short time.

He conceded, too, that in the event of war "we may lose a lot of ships" to Russian submarines although he added "I think we can handle the situation."

But he defended the proposed atomic carrier against attacks by Sen. Ellender (D-La.), who quoted Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.) as saying that if the carrier ever is launched "the Russians could sink it any hour of the day or night."

Burke agreed a carrier is expensive but he insisted that before an enemy could destroy one, they first must find it and then outmaneuver missiles, rockets and other defenses of it and support it.

Cuban Rebels Advancing on 3 Fronts

HAVANA (AP)—President Fulgenio Batista's forces have admitted rebel opposition on three fronts. The government nabbed 35 plotters in central Cuba and claimed 16 casualties in the northeast.

A large part of the capital remained without electric power as a result of yesterday's underground explosion, which blacked out much of Havana's electricity. A second blast went off last night near the home of Cabinet Minister Andre Domingo Morales, but no damage was reported.

Batista issued a warning that all the dynamite his enemies could muster would not be enough "to interrupt our patriotic plans to assure the people their progress and their liberties."

Batista forces clashed with insurgents yesterday near Holguin, in northeast Cuba; near Manzanillo, in the southeast; and at Cienfuegos, in the central province of Las Villas.

Distribution of Magazine Is Held Up

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The threat of grand jury investigation and possible prosecution today blocked distribution in California of 100,000 copies of the June issue of the magazine Whisper.

Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown telegraphed yesterday to 35 California dealers and the magazine's publisher, Robert Harrison.

The current issue of Whisper now in your possession contains printed matter which violates the California statutes prohibiting publication of lewd, obscene and libelous matter.

The distribution of this issue by you will be deemed part of the conspiracy now the subject of grand jury investigation in Los Angeles County and your activity will be called to the attention of that body for appropriate action.

Your dealers also will be considered parties to the conspiracy. Harrison, who also publishes the magazine Confidential, acceded to the attorney general's demands and ordered the June copies sent back to New York.

Harrison and a number of others on the Confidential staff are under investigation by the Los Angeles County grand jury.

Tragic Story Will Happen Again on Memorial Day

By JAMES GEGGIE

MAYNARD, Mass. (UP)—This is the story of the last day in the lives of four young women, Tuesday, May 21.

It began as a very ordinary day. Dorothy Boothroyd, 27, and her sister, Naomi, 22, drove together to the telephone company building where they worked as switchboard operators.

In the doorway that morning they met their friend, Barbara Doran, 24, a company secretary, and made plans for the evening.

They were going to a phone company dinner for its employees. A fourth girl, Kathryn Brobitsky, 24, had called Dorothy the night before and since she formerly worked as an operator here, they invited her

House Again Rejects Defense Money Plea

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the second time in two days the House today spurned White House pleas to give the Defense Department more money for 1958 than the Appropriations Committee recommended.

By standing vote of 137-134, the House defeated a Republican-sponsored amendment to give the Army 400 million dollars for research and development instead of the 382 millions recommended by the committee.

The amendment was one of a series drafted by Republican leaders in an attempt to increase the 33 1/2-billion-dollar bill by 333 million dollars — far short of the 1 1/2 billion President Eisenhower wants added.

The committee cut a total of 2 1/2 billion dollars from the bill. The House refused yesterday to give the Army an extra 80 million dollars for maintenance and operation.

Its action on both amendments, as well as on any others that may be rejected later, is subject to roll-call vote. It is on that vote that GOP leaders are pinning their hopes for eventual victory.

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—Defeated in their first test, House Republican leaders renewed today their drive to provide more money for defense.

They pinned their fading hopes on a roll call vote expected later today. The leaders set a limited goal—restore about 323 million dollars of the 2 1/2 billions tentatively cut from new defense funds by the House Appropriations Committee.

But they drew little solace from a test vote yesterday which rejected their first move by a standing count of 145-113. It would have given the Army an extra 80 million dollars for maintenance and operation, restoring more than half of the 150 millions chopped off by the committee.

Only seven Democrats were seen standing in support of the amendment, while about 20 Republicans opposed it.

That vote, Republican leaders conceded privately, probably set the pattern.

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) said the pattern has been set.

Six Die, Five Hurt in Wreck in Missouri

CUBA, Mo. (AP)—Six persons were killed and five injured today in a two-car collision on the outskirts of Cuba, the Missouri Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said five of the victims were killed instantly and that a sixth was dead on arrival at Phelps County Memorial Hospital in nearby Rolla.

None was identified immediately but the patrol said all apparently were riding in one car, believed to be from Mexico. Mo. This car was traveling in state highway 4 and collided with a westbound car driven on U. S. 66 by Gerald Parsons, 36, of Melrose Park, a Chicago suburb, the patrol said.

Parson's wife, Marjorie, and their daughter, Sandra, 8, were reported by the patrol to be in "very, very critical" condition at the Rolla hospital.

Parson also was hospitalized with undetermined injuries.

The other Parson children, Jeanne, 6, and Jerry, 4, escaped with minor injuries, the patrol said.

The function is on the northern outskirts of Cuba in east central Missouri and there is a blinder light at the intersection.

Grocer, Father Serving Sentence

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Little Rock grocer and his father have started serving 180-day jail sentences for 34 contempt citations in connection with Sunday closing law violations.

Pulaski Chancellor Guy R. Williams yesterday sentenced H. V. Hickinbotham and his father, John H. Hickinbotham, and fined them $1,800 each for defying his injunction of Sept. 14, 1956, which ordered their store closed on Sundays.

Only Monday, the younger Hickinbotham had come out of jail after serving a 10-day sentence for contempt of court.

Judge Williams tempered the sentences by saying he might review the matter and consider leniency under certain conditions.

He said these conditions involved paying $400 on each sentence and serving 40 days on each sentence. After that, he said, the Hickinbothams would have to purge themselves by closing the store on Sundays.

Judge Williams refused a request by Kenneth C. Coffelt, attorney for the grocers, that they be allowed to post bond until they could appeal the chancery court ruling to the state Supreme Court.

Dulles Would Reduce Forces on Formosa

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles, speaking of anti-American rioting in Formosa, said today some better way must be found to cope with the problems of stationing large numbers of Americans in foreign countries.

Dulles told a news conference the presence of thousands of Americans on the Chinese Nationalist island was in risk view because of the rioting.

One way to deal with the problem of resentment by foreigners, he said, may be to reduce American official personnel — especially military personnel — when over possible.

Dulles also made these other comments on world affairs:

1. The United States will accept for disarmament inspection "any area in the world where an inspection system can be started quickly. Because of such problems as the opposition of German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Dulles said, it may not be possible to include European territory in a first stage disarmament agreement.

2. The possibility of a Big Four meeting on German unification is many months away and not something just around the corner. Dulles said he and President Eisenhower agreed with Adenauer to talk with Britain and power meeting on German unification after any first-stage disarmament agreement with Russia.

3. The U. S. policy of barring American newsmen from Communist China stands unchanged. Some suggestions for ways to modify the barrier have been received, Dulles said, and are being studied by Asst. Secretary of State Andrew Berding, in charge of public affairs. The secretary did not say what the suggestions are.

4. Negotiations between the United States and Allied countries, notably Britain and Japan, on ways to relax barriers to trade with Red China have apparently reached an impasse. Some announcement on the status of the talks in Paris is expected tomorrow, Dulles said.

The probability of an early reduction in the number of Americans officially assigned to Formosa was announced yesterday by State Department spokesman Lincoln White. He said the matter is being discussed with the Defense Department and other government agencies concerned.

White put the total number of Americans on Formosa at 10,000, including about 1,100 private citizens such as businessmen and missionaries and 8,900 military and civilian employees of the United States and their dependents. He spoke of a possible cut in the military personnel of about 600 men. With dependents, that could mean that double or triple that number leaving the islands.

In addition, White made clear that consideration is being given to reducing U. S. civilian employees in Formosa. This would not affect the embassy staff, which numbers only 55 officers under Ambassador Karl Rankin together with 19 dependents and 3 Marine guards.

One theory voiced here after the riots was that the contrast between the living standards of Americans in the island and the conditions of the Chinese population bred resentment. Apparently this has grown into a firm conclusion which is behind the emphasis now being placed on reducing the number of Americans in the island.

Humphrey Quits as Secretary of Treasury

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of Treasury George M. Humphrey resigned today. President Eisenhower nominated Robert B. Anderson, former secretary of Navy, as his successor.

Humphrey's resignation will become effective at a date no later than the close of the current congressional session.

Anderson's nomination was sent to the Senate at noon today for confirmation.

The White House also disclosed that Randolph Burgess, now under Secretary of Treasury, would leave his present post to accept another government appointment. The White House declined to say what the new Burgess' assignment would be.

Humphrey's departure from the government has been expected for some time.

He informed the President that he had to give up government service as a matter of "absolute necessity" because of the illness and recent retirement from business of one of his former partners.

The President had known for two years that Humphrey planned to step out of the cabinet. But the actual decision had been postponed repeatedly.

Today, Eisenhower told Humphrey that the actual receipt of his letter of resignation, filled him with "profound regret."

"Yet because of your personal situation, which I fully understand, I, of course, accept your decision," the President said.

Humphrey has been secretary of Treasury since the Eisenhower administration took office in January, 1953.

Fulbright Urges Speed on State Water Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), whose state is threatened with floods along the Arkansas River, today called for a speedup of the water project program — both for flood control and for insurance against droughts.

Flood control and drought control, he said in a speech prepared for the Senate, are the same thing.

When man leases rivers and confines them to their banks for his protection, man can also unleash them for his benefit to provide water when he needs it, where he needs it and in the amount he needs Fulbright said.

The Arkansas River, Fulbright said, is the last undeveloped major river in the country.

In times of flood, it becomes a monster that captures news-papers headlines across the country," he said. In times of drought it provides a trickle of water insufficient for those who depend upon it.

The present schedule for the Arkansas River program, he said, calls for its completion in Arkansas and Oklahoma in 1969 — 12 years or 12 floods away. An additional appropriation of $774,000 this year, he said, would complete the program two years ahead of schedule. Likewise, he said, three big dams now underway could be completed in 1966 if adequate funds were provided.

"Four years or even three years or two or one year of disastrous flood or devastating drought is a big price to pay for a budget reduced by a few thousand or a few million dollars — dollars that represent not real savings for real waste," he said.

He urged that the upstream watershed control program also be accelerated. He said he recently had received a letter from Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas urging implementation and acceleration of this program.

Likewise, he said, he hopes that the President this year will improve a water projects authorization measure which he vetoed last year.

"Critizing those who term water projects bills 'pork barrel' legislation," Fulbright said: "I can say with conviction that those who have borne the brunt of the recent flood disasters in the Southwest — those who have witnessed the death, destruction and devastation wrought by rampaging rivers left uncontrolled — do not take kindly to the use of the term 'pork barrel' as it is bandied about indiscriminately by those sitting high and dry and far removed from those scenes."

Levees Crack

40 feet at Morrilton by midnight tomorrow and 27-28 feet at Little Rock by late Friday.

About 100 National Guardsmen and a band of volunteers worked through the night on a levee near Petit Jean Mountain, eight miles south of Morrilton, in an effort to save some 2,000 acres of farmland at the foot of mountain. The guard unit was pulled back this morning and workers said they believed the sandbags would withstand the 40-foot crest.

The workers added about three feet of sandbags to the top of the levee. In previous floods, highways leading to Petit Jean Mountain have been washed away.

The Dardanelle levee was an earthen barrier which had been heightened by sandbags. A smaller levee broke near Dardanelle yesterday, flooding some 1,200 acres of cropland.

The Country Preacher Is Praised

CHICAGO (AP) — The dedicated country preacher was pictured today as "God's man at the grass roots," as churchmen prepared for the four-day annual Southern Baptist Convention.

"The country preacher must be a good shepherd who loves his sheep and gives his life for them," said Edwin L. McDonald, Little Rock, editor of The Arkansas Baptist.

"The opportunist serving in the country only until a city church will open to him is like the hireling who abandons the sheep to their fate," McDonald told the Southern Baptist Pastors' Conference in a prepared address.

The pastors also heard a British minister say that dedication and struggle "without losing heart" are historic hallmarks of the successful pastor.

"The strains and stresses felt by the Bible's men of God are not unlike those we know and experience today," said F. Townley Lord, pastor of the Boonsbury Central Baptist Church, London, England.

The Bible, he said, is another record of stress and strain, and how modern it all sounds.

The Pastors' Conference met as some 15,000 messengers gathered from 40 states for the big denominational administrative and political meeting in Chicago's International Amphitheatre.

The Southern Baptist Convention has in its membership 30,834 autonomous cooperating churches with more than 8,700,000 communicants.

jects. The economy talk in Congress had led to reports that the budget requests for water projects might be trimmed. Whether the recent floods will stop any such trend remains to be seen.

Put a recent speech by Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee handling money for water projects may have been significant. Ellender told the Senate:

"I wish to say it is entirely possible that if the Public Works Subcommittee cannot obtain an estimate from the Budget Bureau for additional funds to apply to needed projects, the subcommittee will take the bill by the horns and present a bill providing for sufficient funds without being bound by budget estimates."

We are faced with tragedies today because of a pennywise, pound-foolish policy on our part to conserve and preserve our natural resource. For too long, we have neglected to provide money to keep pace with population growth; we have put the welfare of our people, the safety of our homes second."

Eisenhower's veto of the authorization bill last year did not cease the Senate discussion.

Majority Leader Johnson (D-Tex) called attention to it and said, "If those projects were a reality many of our people might not be confronted with the specter of death and disaster that faces them at this hour."

Arkansas has a lot at stake in both the appropriation and authorization bills.

The appropriation bill will carry funds for the Arkansas River development program — assuming Congress approves — as well as for the Beaver and Greers Ferry dams and some other projects.

The authorization bill would approve for future appropriation and construction such projects as Millwood dam and the upstream dams on the Little River and the proposed Lone Rock and Gilbert reservoirs in the northwest.

Reports from the House Public Works Committee are that members are divided on procedure. Some, say the reports, want to pass the bill as it stood last year and throw it back at Eisenhower. The other faction suggests it might be well to eliminate a few of the projects to which the administration objects in order to get the bill signed and new projects authorized.

About 01,300,000,000 of the cuts are of the bookkeeping variety, involving transfers and postponement of projects, the subcommittee will take the bill by the horns and present a bill providing for sufficient funds without being bound by budget estimates."

But Republicans led by Minority Leader Martin of Massachusetts contend the cuts would force a reduction of 32,500 in military personnel as well as curtailment of vital procurement programs.

Should the latter opinion prevail, the Lone Rock and Gilbert projects might be in trouble since the administration objects to them. The next few weeks should tell the story.

Wants Disaster Aid for Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) today urged President Eisenhower to declare flood-ravaged Arkansas a disaster area, as asked by Gov. Orval Faubus.

Flood conditions in the state are critical, Fulbright told the President in a telegram, and losses will be heavy. High winds and heavy rains likewise have caused considerable damage, he said.

Fulbright asked Secretary of Agriculture Benson to amend cotton planting regulations to aid flood-stricken farmers of Arkansas and other states.

Fulbright said farmers should be allowed to move their acreage allotments to other fields if fields they originally had planted have been flooded out.

Arkansas Suspected of Rape Is Jailed

EL DORADO, Ark. — A former Arkansan who is charged with raping a 13-year-old girl at Citronelle, Ala., has been arrested at El Dorado.

Police took K. M. Townsend, 26, Citronelle oil worker and onetime resident of Lawson, Ark., into custody yesterday. He was arraigned before Union Circuit Judge Claude Love on a charge of fleeing from justice.

Townsend had not made bond of $2,000 last night.

At Citronelle, Assistant Chief Deputy Prosecutor, James G. Chambers quoted the girl as saying she was attacked May 21. He said she told him she was baby-sitting at her brother's house when Townsend, whom she knew slightly, entered and assaulted her.

Police said Townsend warned the girl to keep the incident to herself but she told her mother three days later and authorities were notified.

Nation to Observe Memorial Day

By The Associated Press
As they have for four score and nine years, Americans to-morrow will salutes reverence and remembrance for the dead of the nation's wars.
Memorial Day was established May 30, 1868, by officers of the Grand Army of the Republic. The salvage Civil War that racked the young nation for four years was fresh in their minds. Now the day has come to mean a time to pause and remember those who gave their lives in all our wars, from the Revolution to Korea.

Veterans groups, Boy Scouts and others will march in parades. They will hear rifle-crack salutes fired over graves, some almost fresh, some very old. They will hear Taps blown on a bugle. Many will feel fresh grief as they lay wreaths and flowers on graves of soldiers they had loved.

STATUE OF LIMITATIONS RUNS OUT — During the judging of fraternity house decorations at Emory University in Georgia the water fountain sculpture, left, decorated the lawn of one of the houses. The "classical" work was a huge success until the "statues" Paula Foer and Charles Rumble in real life, began to wilt under the strain and the statue became a bust, right, when they had to take time out for a break. After all, they're not made of stone.

Club Member Objects to Steam-Roller Vote

Dear Dorothy Dix: It has always been a practice in organizations to which I have belonged to have a motion, or nomination, seconded before a vote.

The other night, at a club meeting, a nomination was made for the office of secretary. Before the nomination could be seconded, the motion was made nominations be closed. The vote was then asked for.

I contended that the nominee had not properly been stated, since the nomination was not seconded. Every one else said none was necessary, and the lady was voted in.
IDA P.
Dear Ida: Your contention is correct. If parliamentary procedure is followed in a small group, rules and regulations are sometimes glossed over. In the case under discussion, someone apparently wanted this particular lady to serve and rushed the voting through.
You, or any other club member, may be interested in my leaflet.

Tragic Story

It's still early and it's a wonderful night for a drive," she said.
It was. The stars had come out and the air was mild. The girls tried to persuade Kay Sullivan and Ruth McNitt to go bowling, too. But Miss Sullivan said she was getting too old" and Ruth said she wanted to read and go to sleep.
So Miss Bobritsky dropped off the other two operators at their homes. Then she headed for one brief moment. She slowed down the car in the right hand lane.
There was a thunderous, grinding crash as a huge to constitute a major problem.

Dear Dorothy Dix: For three years my 27-year-old daughter, a divorcee, has been dating a bachelor of 35. He's intensely jealous and spoils almost every date they have with his faultfinding. He's asked her to marry him, but she's afraid of making another mistake.

Dear Vivian: Your daughter certainly should steer clear of this man. Her first marriage may have been a mistake; this one would be a tragedy.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Recently I bought a car and arranged the financing through a bank. The young man who took care of me was very nice. Last month when I made a payment, I kiddingly told him I'd take him for a ride. Next time I went in, I realized he had taken me seriously.
I don't have a boy friend; of course, he may have a girl. Do you think it would be all right to go ahead and make a date?

Dear Mitz: Tell him you'd like to give him the promised ride if you aren't trespassing on posted land. Sincerely Linda like fun.

trailer tank truck hit the sedan from the rear. It crushed into the passenger car whose gasoline tank ignited.

The sisters, Dorothy and Naomi, were pinned in the back seat. They were burned black. It was after midnight before rescue workers cut through the welded steel of the truck and the cars to remove their bodies.

Truck Driver Sheldon P. Steady, 23, himself unhurt, pulled Kathryn from behind the wheel. She was dead. It was not really the last day for Barbara but it might as well have been. She clung to life for 48 more hours.

All four girls drove cars. None of them had ever had an accident before.

Their story is not too unusual. Something very close to it is going to happen to some 500 of us this Memorial Day week-end.

Leaves From a Reporter's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) Leaves from a roving reporter's notebook: Here where God makes the land is green.

After five dreadful years of drought that put a parching curse on nearly a fourth of the nation, the blessed rains have revived the earth into a new dream of Eden. The Great Plains, serene and crisp for so long, now roll in endless waves of green so bright on a clear day it almost hurts the eye. And the drought-bowed spirit of man climbs like a morning glory.

The feeling of relief and renewed hope runs right on out to the Rockies, down through Texas to the border.

A fellow sees a small mud puddle, and chirps, "Hey, what's the name of that new lake? It wasn't here last year."

Said E. F. Lowther of the Emporia Gazette: "Now every prospect—farm, city, business—is pleasing."

Said Arthur F. Duncan of the Kansas City Star: "Most authorities seem to agree that drought finally is broken; and if it is, those same authorities agree agriculture and business in this are anticipating a good year. Industrial expansion in some parts of the state may forecast a trend."

Another editor, Clyde M. Reed Jr., of the Parsons Sun, even suggested it might be time to turn off the heavenly faucet: "The only danger now is too much moisture."

Amid the chorus of jubilation throughout Kansas, where historically politics and the weather are two most important topics of conversation, there has sounded one disturbing note.

The rains came during the reign of a Democratic governor, and the Republicans are mortally afraid that, come election time, the Democrats will claim they have a better pipeline to the Almighty.

The long drought dramatically called national attention to the plight of the farmer in the Midwest and Southwest.

Less well-known is the fact that the falling water-table, crumbling the foundations of homes, plants and stores, caused millions of real estate damage in the towns and cities.

A man paid $20,000 for a small brick home in Kansas City less than five years ago. The drought caused the foundations of his front porch to sag, opened wide cracks in its pillars.

He called for bids to repair the damage. The bids ranged from $1,900 to $7,000.

Multiply this example by scores of thousands and you'll have some idea of the financial plight of small homeowners, many of whom already mortgaged to the hilt.

A hotel in Lawrence, Kan., fends off possible complaints from guests by posting the following rules of conduct as outlined by an early day frontier hostelry:

Horse traders pay in advance. Four-bits a night for bed. Six-bits with supper. No more than five to a bunk. No spurs to be worn in bed. No horses allowed upstairs. No poker games in kitchen. Prospective sleep in washroom. Check shooting irons with bartender.

No rustlers, road agents or vigilantes taken in.

Dog Racing Pays State $32,844

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas collected $32,844 from the Southland Racing Corp., dog racing track at West Memphis in the first 10 days of the current meeting. State Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said yesterday the amount was about the same as last year when the first season was held.

What Some Noted Folks Are Saying

By United Press

WASHINGTON — Sen. Theodore F. Green (D-R.I.) (To colleges paying him tribute as the oldest man ever to serve in Congress: "If they know they're right, they should keep on. They'll win in the end. A clear conscience and hard work will win in the end.")

CHICAGO — National League President Warren Giles on a report of a proposed three-term franchise shift:

"I don't want to have to deny anything and then look bad by having it turn out another way."

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Pro-secutor William Thetford rebutting the defense's arguments in the trial of two white men on trial for dynamiting two churches: "We're not waving a bloody flag. We're not trying to get the NAACP involved in this."

WASHINGTON — German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer on his talks with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles:

"We discussed an extremely important question, especially for us Germans, namely the link between general disarmament and German unification."

PITTSBURGH — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) stating that a Roman Catholic could be president:

"The people are running ahead of the politicians... who say a Catholic would have no chance for the presidency. The people today are more interested in a man's talent and ability than his religious convictions."

WASHINGTON — Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. (R-Mich.) denouncing the House Appropriations committee's attempt to force the Army to keep operating the Murphy Hospital, which has more staff personnel than patients, at Waltham, Mass.

"This is the grossest case of extravagance and inefficiency that I have ever heard of. It is the most wilful misuse of federal funds that I have ever heard of."

PHILADELPHIA — Miss Darling, a spokeswoman at Father Divine's headquarters, on a report that the Negro cult leader is dead:

"It's the same thing, just a rumor. We haven't any comment."

NEW YORK — Evangelist Billy Graham, condemning the lust of New Yorkers:

Thousands of New Yorkers read sex magazines and other pornographic literature and they are worshippers of Baa! just as surely as though they take part in lewd orgies of passive before this false god."

Gas Explodes, Two Small Boys, Perish

CHICAGO (AP)—Two small boys perished in a parked automobile last night after an explosion of a can of gasoline set fire to the car. The boys, Jackie McDorman, 7, and Steven Waldo, 6, had been playing with a hammer in the car, police said. Police theorized that the hammer caused a spark which ignited gasoline fumes in the car and that the flames spread to the 5-gallon can of gasoline in the rear seat.

Welfare May Get Cancer Patients

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Negotiations are under way for the state Cancer Control Commission to hand over to the Welfare Department all responsibility for hospitalization of indigent cancer patients.

Both agencies are setting up administrative procedures for making the shift.

The $58,120 per year hospitalization item in the Cancer Commission's 1937-38 budget was vetoed by Gov. Orval Faubus. The veto had notation that the Welfare Department would assume this expense.

The commission will continue operating its seven cancer clinics at major hospitals in Fort Smith, El Dorado, Texarkana, Little Rock, Pine Bluff and Jonesboro.

Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said yesterday that no monetary limit would be placed on his department for hospitalizing indigent cancer patients and that the federal government will match state funds used for the purpose.

Treaty Organization, 2. To "permit better and more extensive use of allied and captured enemy materiel."

The regulation says a start on the change-over is to be made "with the least practicable delay" version is not required before Jan. 1, 1938.

All Army weapons and related equipment from now on will be designed to use the metric system as a unit of linear measurement.

Sanity of Sailor Is Being Tested

By LEONARD MILLIMAN

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Naval psychiatrists tried to determine today what sent a normally mild seaman on a murderous six-hour armed mutiny yesterday aboard ship.

One officer was killed and another seriously wounded. The sudden burst of gunfire turned the attack cargo transport Uvalde into an armed camp.

Negro seaman Jimmie L. Henderson, 31, Marine City, Calif., said he killed because he was convicted of stealing a $30 watch. Apparently without remorse, he talked freely to newsmen of his resentment, his plotting and the killing. Then he was taken under guard to Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland.

The bespectacled sailor slugged guard Joseph H. Veerbeek, 22, on the Uvalde at a Treasure Island dock in San Francisco Bay, seized his automatic and killed Ensign Arthur L. Morris, 20, Stow, Ohio. Morris was shot in the head as he sat on the edge of his bunk at 8:15 a.m.

Eleven bloodhounds recently were shipped from San Francisco to become members of the Manila police department.

Emigration from Denmark increased considerably during the past year, mostly to Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

His departure added to other news about television comedians presents a surprising picture: Jackie Gleason is dropping his regular weekly show on CBS-TV next season. Milton Berle has said he will not be back. Jimmy Durante has left us. Herb Shriner does not have a regular spot.

Now Ernie Kovacs, a genuine funny man who had a phenomenally rapid rise on TV in the past year, has indicated that he's had it in the medium; he is not expected to sign a new contract with NBC.

As to this writing, the well-known straight comedians who will be seen regularly on the home screen next season appear to be only three. Jack Benny will continue to appear on alternate weeks for a half hour on CBS-TV. George Gobel will be teamed with Eddie Fisher on a regular weekly hour on NBC-TV. And Bob Hope will be doing hour programs once a month for the same network.

What has happened here? Well, exactly what the funny men have warned us would happen. It is too difficult, most of them have said, to do an hour-long original comedy program once a week.

The seven weekly hour drama programs scheduled for next fall compare to 14 which were scheduled for last fall.

There emerges something of the shape of next season's evening programming: fewer comedians, fewer hour-length dramatic shows.

Wives Advised to Make Most of Their Time

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Advice, to wives: "The thing to do is figure out how much time you have—and then make the most of that time."

This is how Mary Hoford explains her amazing success in combining a variety of careers, including home making. Right now she is embarking on a whole new career as a movie actress. She's making her film debut as the leading lady in "The Missouri Traveler."

Beside this she has been a radio actress, cookbook author, TV star, real estate saleswoman and occasional cook for 200 guests. And she's the mother of four small children.

I pinned Mary down on her varied careers between scenes of a Fourth of July celebration in a small Missouri town. She disclosed she is also from Missouri—Kansas City. She entered the University of Iowa at 15 (always in a hurry, this girl and did radio and the Republicans are morally work in her home town, Chicago and New York.

Nine years ago she married wealthy Frank Hoford, who has insurance, oil and mining interests. But she didn't retire to a life of leisure. They traveled a great deal.

After wintering in Phoenix, Ariz., for a few years, the Hofords moved there the year-around because of their children, who range from 2 to 8. With time on her hands, Mary embarked on a local television show of the Faye Emerson type.

The movie adventure arose by chance she said. C. V. Whitney, millionaire financier who backs a film company bearing his name, was dining in Phoenix with Margo James, of the local Sombroso Theater. He was explaining the trouble he was having in the casting of a small town spinster for "Missouri Traveler." Mary passed by and Miss James recommended her.

She came to Hollywood, but producer Pat Ford wasn't impressed with her script reading. He offered to give her a test, however, and the results won her the role.

"I asked her what she does with her spare time," she said. "I also play golf, though not as well as I'd like to."

Marriage Annulled, Woman Still Married

LOS ANGELES (AP) —Elayne C. Bessman, 31, helped her husband Sheldon get their marriage annulled yesterday, but when it was all over she still was married. Bessman, 36, married Elayne twice, in 1943 and 1956. He claimed the second one didn't count because Elayne wasn't legally di-

Caesar Left Television in Grand Style

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Sid Caesar left regular network television in the best show business tradition. He did not creep off like a dying swan Saturday evening.

Those who came to watch could literally say they were there to honor rather than to bury Caesar. For in his final appearance on NBC-TV he presented some of his finest satires.

Caesar ran into sponsor problems and NBC did not feel it could afford to pick up the weekly $120,000 tab for his program. The network believed he was suffering from over-exposure on TV; Caesar, however, was not.

voiced from Jerome Marks, a Los Angeles man who got in the act by marrying her in 1948.

The judge agreed, saying the divorce Elayne got from Marks in Las Vegas, Nev., last year was invalid because she was a resident of Hollywood at the time.

The judge suggested she could untangle her marital record by getting a second divorce from second husband Marks, this time in California.

Canadian Held in Brutal Slaying

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. —An impassive, balding Canadian who says he "felt no emotion at all" was held today as charges were prepared in the slaying of a young woman.

Care Van Horne, 46, London, Ont., walked into a San Francisco police station yesterday with blood on his hands and coat and admitted he had bled from Mrs. Nancy McLennan, 27, as she slept at the home of her mother in nearby Menlo Park.

The slightly built Canadian contended "she was my girl friend up to four years ago in Canada but her mother objected and I got burned over it. We used to go together but then she came out here. I sent letters and she didn't answer." He also said she "would not have anything to do with me" because of "some spiritualist church she was going to."

Mrs. McLennan, shapely mother of two daughters, was separated from her husband in London. She came to Menlo Park in November and lived with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Horne. The Canadian's brother, Van Horne, followed her to Menlo Park Friday. George Potter, the San Francisco suburb's police chief said there had been sharp tension in the family and that Mrs. McLennan had been trying to avoid Van Horne.

She went to Lake Tahoe with friends Saturday and, upon returning at 11 p.m. Sunday, refused to talk to Van Horne, going straight to her bedroom.

Her suitor remained in the living room and sat brooding in front of a television set, he told police later.

Early yesterday morning, after both Mr. and Mrs. William Van Horne had left for work, Mrs. McLennan's half-sister, Wendy Van Horne, 14, saw Clare standing in the hall outside Nancy's bedroom. She said an Horne asked her:

"Why doesn't Nancy talk to me?"

"Because she doesn't want to," the girl replied.

Wendy said she went then to the bathroom. She said she came out just as Van Horne was leaving the bedroom, his hands and coat dripping blood.

Van Horne is estranged from his wife. Dep. Dist. Atty. Howard Hartley said first-degree murder charges were being prepared against Van Horne.

Finland Also Has New Government

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Parliament Speaker V. J. Sukselainen has organized a minority coalition government, ending a three-month Finnish cabinet crisis.

The new government — made up of 7 Agrarians, 1 Independent and 2 representatives each from the Liberal Swedish and Finnish Peoples parties — commands 79 of 200 Parliament seats.

The Socialist, biggest party in Finland, decided not to participate in the new government but will not oppose it.

The Agrarian-Socialist coalition government of Premier Karl A. Fagerholm submitted its resignation after a split between the coalition partners on an economic stabilization program for Finland.

MINOR VIOLATION—Looks like the Law might be considering plastering a full-size ticket on this midget bus in London. The tiny vehicle, advertising a hair shampoo, is powered by a gasoline engine and can carry four normal-sized persons.

Facial Gash to Leave No Scar

Kenneth Klug, 3, who suffered a nine-inch gash on his face when bitten by the family farm dog, is going to escape with minimum scars and disfigurement, a doctor said today.

Surgeons took 63 stitches to close the wound which they described as "almost unbelievable." The wound is healing nicely, a doctor said.

Kenneth was playing in the farm yard Friday when his mother, Mrs. Emil Klug heard him scream and Rover the dog, snarling. She ran out of the house to find Kenneth on the ground and the dog standing over him. She drove the dog away and ran to the fields to get her husband.

Doctors at Fairmont Hospital worked 2½ hours to close the ugly wound. It started just below the mouth, running down along the jawbone and then to the jugular vein and then upward to the ear. An inside wound continued for another two inches coming out by the left ear which also was badly cut.

Kenneth was released from the hospital yesterday.

Gabor's Daughter Joins TV Union

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Zsa Zsa Gabor's 9-year-old daughter Francesca has joined the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists and announced she'll concentrate on serious drama — "real heavy stuff."

Francesca, accompanied yesterday by her mother when she signed papers making her a member of the union, will get her first part Thursday. She'll appear in a TV play with Zsa Zsa and will have a speaking part consisting of one line.

"We don't know what it will be yet," Zsa sa said.

"But it is a very important part," Francesca insisted. "It's a birthday party scene. I know that — very dramatic."

Syria Hits Jordan for a 'Violation'

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria has accused Jordan of violating the Egyptian-Syrian-Jordanian military agreement in ordering Syrian troops out of the Hashemite kingdom.

The 4,000 to 5,000 Syrian troops were sent to Jordan under the three-nation pact when Israel invaded the Sinai Peninsula last November. Ostensibly they were there to protect Jordan against Israel, but many observers anticipated a Syrian-Egyptian move to divide Jordan.

Syria withdrew the force last week after Jordan said conditions no longer necessitated its presence.

In a long statement blasting King Hussein's policy, a Syrian military spokesman in Damascus also denied Jordanian charges that Syrian officers helped stir up the recent Jordan political crisis.

Bigwigs to Attend Library Dedication

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt are among those expected to attend the dedication of the Truman Library July 6, former President Harry S. Truman said yesterday.

Government leaders will be among the speakers. Asked if the White House would be represented, Truman replied: "For that answer you'll have to ask the White House. No one can speak for the man in the White House."

Truman said Chief Justice Earl Warren will give the dedicatory address.

The $13-million-dollar library building in nearby Independence, Mo., Truman's home, will be turned over to the federal government.

Peck Plays It Smart, Makes a Western

By LOUELLA G. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, May 28 — (INS) — My lanky friend, Gregory Peck, is playing it real smart in his first independent production by planning a western. "The Big Country," associating himself with William Wyler as co-producer and director — in other words, joining up with Wyler's independent organization.

As though this weren't boxoffice guarantee enough, Greg has signed Jean Simmons as his co-star. Chic Jannic with the light brown hair will play a western school marm, who captures the heart of the son of a rich shipbuilder in the 1870s. "The Big Country" rolls July 1.

FORMBY, England — Dale Morey of Indianapolis is making his first appearance this year in the British Amateur golf championship, breezed into the fourth round today with an easy second round victory and a debut.

Morey, top favorite in the U. S. contingent, whipped Ernest Cranes, a little-known English player, 4 and 3. In the second round after drawing a bye through the first round, then his next opponents, D. T. Doble of Kenya, scratched.

New Missile Design Is Announced

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Martin Co., announced today development of the Bullpup, a new air-to-surface missile designed for use by light attack planes against such targets as tanks and truck convoys.

Developed by Martin and the Navy, the Bullpup is about 11 feet long and weighs 600 pounds. It is to be suitable for both carrier-based Navy operations and shore-based Marine Corps use.

Vice Adm. William V. Davis Jr., deputy chief of naval operations for air, outlined development of the Bullpup today in a speech at Kansas City, Mo. He said it is now undergoing Navy evaluation and will be introduced to the fleet as a service weapon.

Bodies of 4 Japs Found in Lifboat

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP) — The bodies of four men and a woman, all Japanese were found today in a lifeboat drifting about 12 miles off the coast of central Japan.

The five were believed to be from a small cargo ship which disappeared May 20 en route from Nagoya to Tokyo. Seven persons were aboard, including the wife of a deckhand.

Other Americans, including Jimmy McCallie and Frank Strafel, who reached the third round.

Believes Mantle Worth a Million

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 28 (UP) — Arnold Johnson, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, thinks Mickey Mantle is worth a million dollars "but I know I couldn't buy him for that."

Johnson was quoted as saying he would give a million for Mickey, and that the star New York Yankee outfielder would pay the purchase price back in seven years of playing.

Ernest Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, quoted Johnson yesterday as saying that Mantle could raise the Athletics to third or fourth place in the American League and would add at least $100,000 to the A's gate each season.

Johnson also was quoted as saying that Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers was worth $700,000, and that he offered Spike Briggs, then president of the Tigers, $450,000 for Kaline last fall.

CHAPTER XXXIII

The first detective came out of the freezer and he had a package in his hand. He nodded to Piero. "Milo, I love you like a brother," Piero said fervently. "I forgive you for everything. I forgive you for the cemetery, I forgive you for the long wait on the beach."

"You forgive me," I said. I was so annoyed that I forgot my headache and sat up. "I'm the guy who had to face a charging wild boar; I'm the guy who got hit over the head; and you forgive me."

"But you are an American," he said gravely. "Americans like that sort of thing. How is your head?"

"It's terrible," I said. "First," Piero said, "you should know all that's happened."

"I was hit on the head," I said indignantly. "When we got here," he said, "we found you where he is still lying. Up at the corner of the house, we found Gianna Bionda."

"What happened to her?" I asked. "She claims that she was on the terrace when she heard some sort of noise from this direction. She started to come around the house and that's all she knows. There was a knife in her shoulder. It must have been thrown."

"By whom?" I asked. "Balena's throat was cut and Gianna had a knife in her shoulder," he said. "You were unconscious. But guess who we discovered hiding by the cars?"

I turned to look in the direction he was indicating. Achille Coniglio was standing there, looking sulky. "He had one knife on him," Piero added.

"I didn't do it," Achille said sullenly, looking at me. "I came here because you said you were going to look for the killer of my brother and I thought perhaps you would need me. But I did not even know you were in danger, Milo."

I turned to look. It was impossible to see the places where the cars were parked.

"I believe you, Achille," I said. "You must not pay any attention to the police. They get excited."

"Look who doesn't get excited," Piero said.

"I do not get excited," I said with dignity. "I may get hit on the head, but I do not get excited. By the way, the butler is in on this little deal here."

Piero snapped an order and one of the detectives went toward the house.

"If you're interested," I said, "the opium was brought in by the big yacht. Three men and a woman."

"It's left," he said, "but we can get them."

"The way it worked," I said, "was like this: They'd bring the opium in when he was having a party. Nobody paid any attention to four more guests. Always there would be a boat hunt. The baron has a tradition of sending two boats from each hunt to a convent in Tuscany. I don't know if he really did, but the opium always left here hidden inside the boats."

"Good," Piero said. "Now all you have to do is tell me who hit you, murdered young Balena and knifed Gianna."

I'd been thinking about it even while I talked and I didn't like what I was thinking.

"Another thing," I said, lowering my voice. "Ricardo, here, tried to kill me this afternoon when we were on the boat hunt. I expect he was the lad who hit me over the head. And I'm sure that there was no question but that he was mixed in on this deal with Gambero."

Piero looked worried. "I know what you're thinking," I said. "The government. All right. It's important to keep the government you have. The boy's father is not automatically tainted with the son's sins. So make up your own story. You can say that Ricardo rushed in to save me when I was attacked. So he'll be a hero and so will his father."

"Killed by whom?" Piero asked quietly.

"In good time," I said irritably. "You want strawberries and whipped cream. But won't that save your government?"

"Yes," he said. "You'll back up such a story?"

"Yeah," I said. "If he were alive, I wouldn't. But you can't send him to prison now. And the only person who can say otherwise is Gambero and who's going to believe him?" I suddenly remembered something. "You said some of the guests had already left. Who?"

He told me. It had been quite a few of them. The only ones I knew were the four from the yacht, Johnny Fornesi and Wilma Pianta, Ugo Marrone and Albert Blaine.

"Okay," I said. I stood up and managed not to fall on my face. "Let's go to Rome. I wasn't cut out for this country life."

Piero was willing, but it took us a few minutes to get started. Gianna, with a bandage on her shoulder, insisted on being taken along. We finally wound up taking her car, with Piero driving. At my insistence, we also took Achille along.

Piero made only one more reference to the matter at hand. That was just before we got in the car.

"Milo, my friend," he said, "you have not forgotten about the murderer?"

"How could I forget?" I asked. "You know something? The murderer killed possibly 193 people—198 counting Anna Maria Pericoloso and Attilio Coniglio and Riccardo Balena. But I owe my life and you owe your case against Gambero to the murderer."

Big 4 Foreign Ministers to Meet Soon

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer agreed today a new Big Four foreign ministers meeting on German reunification after the West concludes a "first step" disarmament agreement with Russia.

Adenauer's three-day conference here, they said that the conclusion of a disarmament agreement might be an appropriate time for a conference on the reunification of Germany among the foreign ministers of the four powers responsible for the West.

The communiqué added that the United States will consult with Britain and France about their views.

They declared German reunification a prerequisite to any "comprehensive" world disarmament agreement.

This, apparently, was the compromise assurance the 81-year-old West German leader sought in Washington. He had been reported to be worried that the Western powers would leave the German problem unsolved in the rush for a partial disarmament agreement at London.

Eisenhower promised in the communiqué that any disarmament plans applicable to Europe would be accepted by the United States only with the approval of the other NATO nations, including West Germany, and with regard to "the link between European security and German reunification."

The President assured Adenauer the United States would not take any disarmament step which would prejudice the reunification of Germany.

The communiqué said that Germany must be reunited "on a free and democratic basis by peace full means."

Adenauer made a similar pledge to avoid force in uniting Germany during a speech to the House of Representatives shortly after his final session with the president.

"Nobody in Germany plays with the idea of using force of war, and this includes the use of force in the question of German unification," he declared, "on my word before God."

The two leaders in their communiqué challenged Russia to demonstrate that "it really desires peace."

Suitor Kills a Woman and Her Son

NEW YORK (AP)—A 50-year-old Brooklyn woman's suitor crept into her apartment from a fire escape early today, shot her son to death when he protested and then killed the woman in her bed.

The slayer turned the gun on himself and was taken to a hospital with a critical chest wound.

Police, who could not determine immediately whether the woman was a widow or divorced said they had been informed the son objected to her friendship with the slayer.

Slain were Mrs. Veronica Parry and her son John, 30, an employee of the New York Telephone Co.

The killer, Emil Iacubovski, 50, picked up a telephone co.

The killer, Emil Iacubovski, 50, picked up a telephone in the bedroom, dialed the operator and mumbled: "I've just killed two people. Send the police." Then he collapsed beside the bed.

Police said that after killing the son in the living room, Iacubovski talked with Mrs. Parry in the bedroom before shooting her.

A neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Powers, heard Mrs. Parry plead: "Emil, don't do it. Please don't do it."

Studio Editor Is Placed on Probation

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Russell J. Burton, story editor for a Hollywood studio, has been placed on probation five years for a assault to his former wife Pamela Joan Burton.

Burton, 36, was arrested in West Los Angeles last Jan. 13 after allegedly trying to stab his 26-year-old wife with a screwdriver and to hold her in a gutter filled with rain water. Mrs. Burton, daughter of writer F. Hugh Herbert, subsequently got their marriage annulled.

Judge Allen T. Lynch ordered Burton to pay a $400 fine as a condition of his probation, to compensate his ex-wife for injuries suffered in the attack and to submit to psychiatric treatment.

Convict Held in Death of His Wife

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—A 40-year-old paroled convict admitted today he beat to death wife of a prominent Huntington contractor, Detective Chief Hermin Frazier said.

The nude body of Mrs. Ruby H. Miller, 58, was found yesterday in a blood-spattered bedroom of her fashionable South Side home. A blood-stained hammer lay nearby.

Frazier said Elmer David Bruner made a statement admitting killing the woman but hadn't signed it yet. Frazier said the statement came after four hours of questioning Bruner, who was also sought in connection with an armed robbery.

Frazier said Bruner had keys to a car stolen from the Miller home in his possession. He was arrested at his home and charged with murder a few hours after the body was found.

Bruner admitted breaking into the house by cutting a screen in a window, Frazier said. He was ransacking a bedroom when he heard someone come into the house. Bruner said he opened the bedroom door and was confronted by Mrs. Miller holding a shotgun. He wrested the gun from her and "picked up something and began hitting her with it," Frazier related.

The husband of the victim, J. E. Miller, returned from work in late afternoon to find the house in disorder. He and a neighbor found Mrs. Miller's body beneath a pile of clothing on the bed.

The Millers lived alone in the sprawling one-story house. Their two children live outside West Virginia.

Nasal Inhaler Is Blamed in Death

BAXTER SPRINGS, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. Nancy Alice Alford, 21, died in a hospital yesterday and authorities blamed her death on one of those pocket-size nasal inhalers you can buy at many stores.

County Attorney Jules Doty said chewing the contents of some inhalers can produce "a quick thrill or quick drunk."

Dr. Harvey Bogan, who attended Mrs. Alford, said she died of amphetamine poisoning. He estimated the contents of the inhaler were equivalent to 50 benzidine tablets.

Mrs. Alford had been in the hospital six days. She lived at nearby Riverton, Kan.

Authorities in Jasper County, across from Baxter Springs in Missouri, have asked federal agents to investigate the sale of the gadgets in night spots and liquor stores along the state line.

Claims Troop Movements Up to Hungarians

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio says Soviet troop movements outside their bases in Hungary will be carried out only with the approval of Hungarian authorities under a new agreement signed by Hungary and the Soviet Union.

The treaty, signed yesterday in Budapest, also was said to provide that "Hungarian courts will deal with crimes committed by Soviet troops or members of their families."

The number of troops and the places where they will be determined on the basis of "special agreements," the broadcast added.

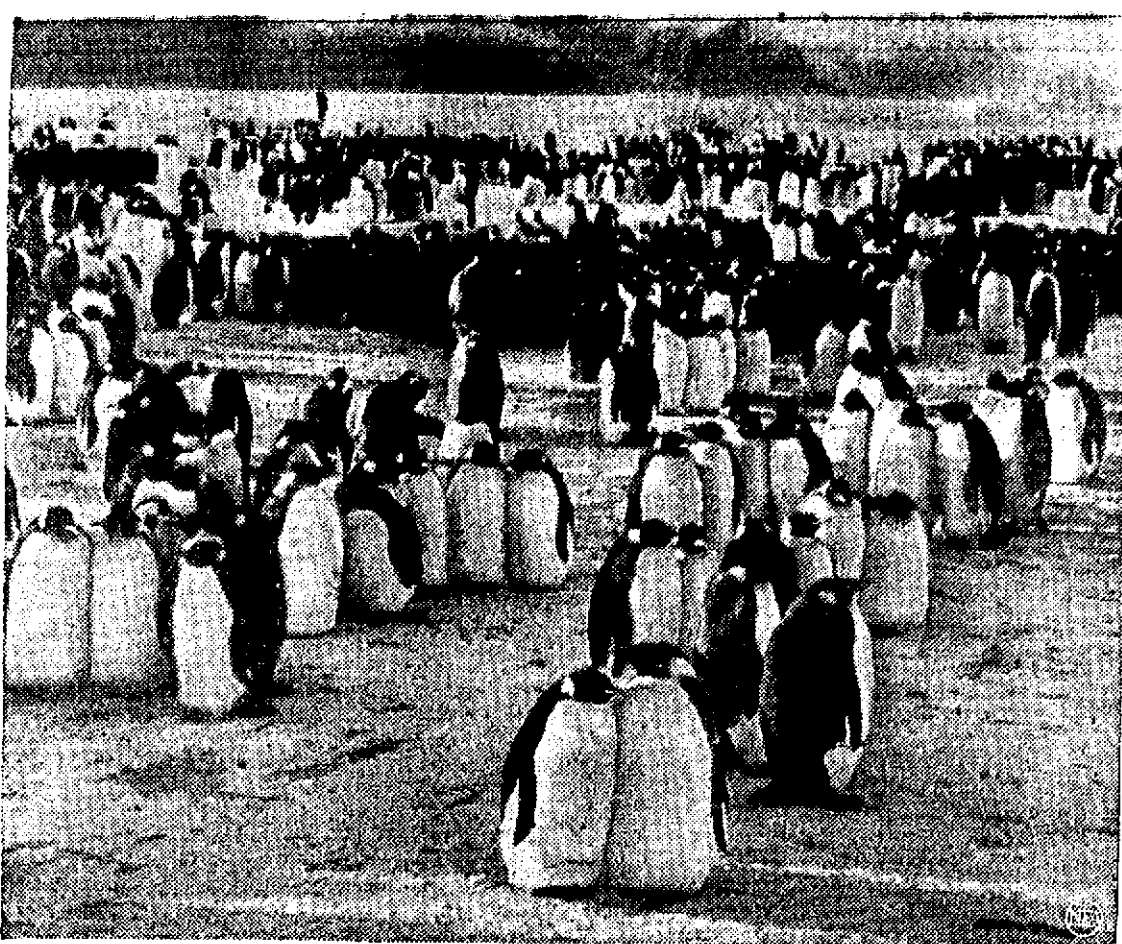

Neither Moscow radio nor an announcement in Budapest gave the strength of Soviet forces in Hungary, which crushed last fall's anti-Russian revolt. They now are believed to total perhaps 150,000 men.

"The agreement stresses the temporary character of the presence of Soviet troops on the territory of Hungary," Moscow radio said, "also that this circumstance in no way infringes on the sovereignty of the Hungarian state and that Soviet troops do not interfere in the internal affairs of Hungary."

It said a commission made up of three Russians and three Hungarians will deal with disputes.

The Soviet Union has signed similar treaties with Poland, Romania and East Germany in the past six months.

Defense Minister, George K. Zhukov and Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko for the Soviet Union and Defense Minister Geza Revesz and Foreign Minister Imre Horvath for Hungary.

has formed a new coalition cabinet made up of 9 Socialist ministers, 4 Liberals and 3 members of the Single Tax party.

King Frederik IX last week gave Hansen the job of forming another government. Hansen's previous Socialist-Liberal Cabinet resigned after parliamentary elections May 14 in which the coalition lost its small majority.

Italian and Indian Girl Change Plans

Roberta Rossellini and his pretty Bengali script writer reportedly have decided not to live close to each other.

Count Vittorio Lavison, the Italian consul, indicated Rossellini plans to be more discreet in his relations with Mrs. Sonali Das Gupta, whose kin have been raising a cry over the reported romance.

As a start, Lavison hinted, they will give up their adjoining quarters in Bombay's Taj Mahal Hotel.

Lavison discounted reports the Italian producer, husband of actress Ingrid Bergman, has been given a week to get out of India. "I expect Rossellini will complete his film shooting schedule before he leaves," he said.

Rossellini has gone to Poona to do some more documentary films for the Indian government. He has repeatedly insisted he and Sonali have only a business arrangement and has denied reports he plans to divorce Miss Bergman, who is in Paris.

A relative of Mrs. Das Gupta commented: "Rossellini led Sonali up the garden path and now stored the margin necessary for control."

The Socialists have 70 seats in the 179-member Folketing Parliament, 25 more than the second-place Agrarians. The Liberals hold 14 and the Single Tax party 9, giving the coalition a total of 93.

No major changes in foreign policy were expected.

probably will leave her in the lurch."

Sonali, 28-year-old mother of two, is near Rossellini. She asserted she would never return to her husband, Hari Das Gupta, an Indian movie director.

A spokesman for India's Home Ministry said the government is still debating whether it should extend Rossellini's visa so he can finish his film series.

No Longer Tolerate U. S., Crys Sino Reds

HONG KONG (AP) — Peiping radio declared today the people of China "could no longer tolerate the U. S. aggressors" on Formosa and called on the Nationalists to drive the Americans out.

The blast was the latest in Peiping propaganda exploitation of Taipei's anti-American riots Friday over a U. S. Army court-martial acquittal of Sgt. Robert E. Reynolds of Colona, Md., in the fatal shooting of a Chinese prowler.

The broadcast quoting the official Peiping People's Daily contained some of the bitterest and most inflammatory denunciations of the United States that monitors of the Red Radio could recall.

"The U. S. imperialists regard Taiwan Formosa as their colony," the broadcast said. "They are copying the despicable tricks that have been used by all colonialists."

"They are arrogantly interfering in all aspects of Taiwan's affairs. Military personnel of the U. S. and cannon fodder necessary in wars of aggression."

The press and radio in Communist North Korea also denounced

A New Babe May Be in the Making

NEW YORK (UP) — The ladies of the links insist today, with the U. S. forces on Formosa and saluted the Taipei rioters "who valorously rose up to uphold their national pride and legitimate rights."

unladylike emphasis, that a chunky youngster named Wiffi Smith is the new Babe Zaharias of women's golf.

This is much like comparing the rookie Mickey Mantle with Babe there was only one Babe Didrik Ruth, amateur-day Floyd Patterson Zaharias. Anything remotely resembling her is a real prize at the box office. And Wiffi, they'll tell you, is it.

Farm Share of Dollar Is Now 39 Cents

WASHINGTON (AP) The Agriculture Department reported today that the farmer's share of the consumer food dollar was 39 cents during the first quarter of this year. This compared with 40 cents during the last quarter of 1956 but was the same as the corresponding quarter a year ago. During World War II the farm share rose to 54 cents.

Charges for marketing farm produced foods were 4 per cent higher in the first quarter of this year than in the same period last year. Prices received by farmers were up 5 per cent and retail food prices were 4 per cent higher.

Higher prices for meat, and meat animals accounted for much of the rise in customer and farmer prices, the department said.

"Operating costs of food marketing firms generally were higher in the first quarter than they were a year earlier," said a department report on the marketing and transportation situation.

"Hourly earnings of food marketing employees averaged about five per cent higher. Transportation charges were up, and rail roads asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for further increases in freight rates. Prices of supplies, equipment, and other things marketing firms buy generally increased during the past year."

The department said further increases are likely in marketing charges this year, mainly because of prospective advances in costs.

The retail cost and the farm value of choice grade beef increased 7 and 8 per cent respectively, from the first quarter of 1956 to the same period this year. The marketing margin increased 6 per cent during the same period.

The department reported also that incomes of firms processing and marketing farm products were generally larger in 1956 than in 1955. Increases ranged from 4 per cent for leading bakery firms to 24 per cent for sugar refiners.

Says People Ahead of the Politicians

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) says "the people are running ahead of the politicians" who says a Roman Catholic would have no chance for the Presidency.

"The people today are 'more interested in a man's talent and ability' than his religious convictions," Kennedy said last night in a tape-recorded interview over radio station KDKA.

He was asked if Al Smith lost his bid for the presidency because he was Catholic.

"Al Smith was beaten by more factors than his religion," he replied. "You must remember that the Republicans had been in power a long time, that 1928 was a period of prosperity and that Al was campaigning against prohibition—an unpopular stand."

Kennedy said he will seek reelection to the Senate in 1958 but will not be a presidential candidate in 1960.

One of Quints Being Treated

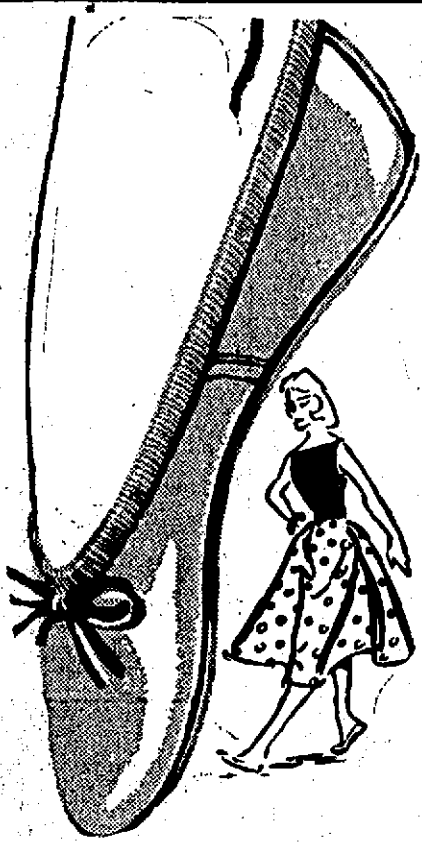

MONTREAL (AP) — Mari Dionne is reported undergoing radium treatments in Hotel Dieu Hospital for a blood vessel tumor on one leg. A blood vessel close to the tumor is said to be the cause of the condition. The tumor is said to be a "quintuplet" condition. Dionne is expected to remain in the hospital another week or two.
